

This is a
FREE event.
All Most Welcome.

Stock Village Celebrates the Queens Diamond Jubilee

Monday 4th June
Starting at 2pm on the village Common

Schedule for the day

|                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|----------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2pm            | Opening Ceremony: Lord PetreBlessing – Bishop Thomas McMahonPicnic on the Common (Catering and bars available if required)2.00 - 2.45 pm.      Jazz Band3.00 - 3.45 pm.      The Maier Brothers                                             |
| 2.10 pm        | Registration for Kids Olympics – sponsored by Beavers, Cubs & Scouts                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 2.30 - 4pm     | Kids Olympics: 2.30 pm -      Infants (Reception -Year 2)3.00 pm -      Juniors (Years 3 - 6)3.30 pm -      Seniors (Years 7 - 11)                                                                                                                                |
|                | Children's Activities:Crafts and crown making - sponsored by Harlequin MontessoriJuice, cake and sweet stall - sponsored by Stock Pre-SchoolPunch & Judy starts 2.15 and runs every half an hourFace painting - Kids Beauty Salon - candy floss - tombola |
| 4 - 5.30 pm    | Children's Entertainment4.00 - 4.30 pm      : Danceworld4.30 - 5pm           : Karate Demonstration5.00 - 5.30 pm      : Windmill Theatre                                                                                                                     |
| 5:30 pm        | Raffle Draw                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 5.30 - 6.30 pm | Royal Cannon                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 6.30 - 7.00 pm | Morris Men                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 7 - 10 pm      | Musical Entertainment7 – 7.45 pm           : 15 Watts Chicago Blues Band7.45 – 8.45 pm       : Phil Cavill8.45 – 9.30 pm       : Maier Brothers9.30 – 10.00 pm      : 15 Watts Chicago Blues Band                                                         |
| 10.15 p.m.     | Lighting of the Beacon and National Anthem                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |