A meeting recently took place with Crondon Park golf & country club about a new pitch & facilities. The club are hoping financial support might be obtained via the Football Foundation to assist with funding any relocation.

After a recent incident of disorder involving two Mid Essex clubs who draw their players from East London, it will be interesting to see how the league reacts. Some believe that the boundary of the league should be set at the M25.

Players are reminded that they should ensure they have arrived for a match, are changed & are on the pitch warming up half an hour before kick off.

Following Freddie Tully's recent mouth injury the question arises – why don't more football players wear gum shields?

Run of the Mill

After postman Andy Elias said he was able to get to matches earlier than Postman Anton Uzal, Anton told Run of the Mill the reason he was often late was because he had a much larger sack.

Keith Howell has offered to act as interpreter during matches for Freddie Tully who has just started wearing a gum shield & can't be understood by the rest of the team. When asked how he was coping with the gum shield Freddie said : “ urr murrng whur hurm”

There are concerns for Ray Coe after he was last seen at the end of the teams night out in Chelmsford recently chatting up a saveloy & chips outside Chicagos nightclub.
