1. The club have been looking for a 2nd hand portacabin to be placed next to the pitch to provide improved changing facilities. Geoff Tully inspected one which became available, but it was not considered suitable.
2. The F.A. Are offering £5k over 3 years if a club submits a viable plan to create 2 new teams in this period. The club's committee gave careful consideration to this, but decided to review the position next year as there is currently no certainty that 2 sides could be raised in this timeframe.
3. Since the start of the year the pitch has been marked out with a sports pitch marking solution. The new solution has proved to be successful & means the pitch does not have to be marked out every week.
