	The Chairman reported that a lady had contacted him about a tree that is leaning on her house from Hankin Wood. He advised that the land is still under CCC's ownership as the Parish Council are still awaiting the lease. The Clerk advised that CCC had agreed to carry out the dog watch campaign in Stock and were going to provide dog bags, postcards for reporting offenders and signage. It was agreed that the information should be advertised in Stock Press and on the website and the bags and postcards should be put into the Post Office. The Clerk advised that the noticeboard had been delivered to her house rather than the village. It was agreed that Cllr. Fenwick would ask Swift Landscaping to erect the noticeboard and ask if it could be delivered to them. Clerk to get a price from the Courier company in Mersea and arrange for it to be delivered to Swift Landscaping. Cllr. Fenwick reported that the War Memorial is full of weeds and Swift Landscaping had asked whether the Parish Council would like them taken out. Cllr. Fenwick advised that Michael Hurst, Conservation Officer, at CCC had agreed that the War Memorial could be jet washed if it was done gently. All agreed that Cllr. Fenwick should ask Swift Landscaping to carry out the work and also advise Cllr. Rilstone. Cllr.
